Charity Fundraiser Cycle challenge to Peru

This year Catherine and Charlotte are doing their bit to raise money for the Toni&Guy charitable foundation, by cycling up the mountains of Peru!!!! Cycling 65km a day for 6 days at high altitudes, this is no mean feat for these two ladies!!! They have already started doing their training by cycling around Bath, so u might even see them around!!!

They have started doing a lot to raise the money, even going on Bath FM to spread the word.

They have a raffle going on in the salon, you can pop in any time to buy some tickets and u have the chance of winning a prize every week, they even have their own charity page online where you can make donations and check their progress to see how near they are to hitting their target of £8000 for the whole trip!!!!

If you would like to make a donation just go to www.justgiving.com/essentialsbath
